WORLD ATHLETICS CHAMPIONSHIPS

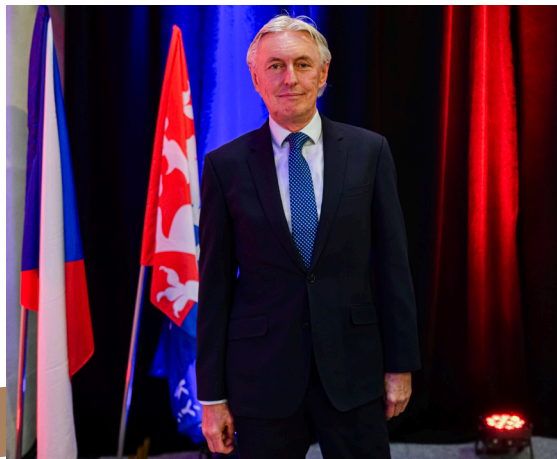

WORLD ATHLETICS CHAMPIONSHIPS

This brochure was made by Czech Athletic Federation's Communications Department.

www.atletika.cz

DEAR FRIENDS OF ATHLETICS

Top-class global athletics is returning to Tokyo after four years, and the world championships after 34 years will be a great comeback. During the Olympic Games, the 68,000-seat stadium was forced to remain (almost) empty. Now the stands will be full, and I have no doubt that this will not only be the case for the final competitions. Athletes need support, and they perform even better in an energetic atmosphere. They were great in silent 2021, and they will undoubtedly be just as good now in roaring 2025, if not better.

The World Athletics Championships are being held later than ever before and are the absolute highlight of the entire season. This is a novelty, but one that everyone has to come to terms with. I firmly believe that the team we are sending to Japan is strong and ready to perform at their best, which will earn them high rankings. In terms of numbers, the team is similar to previous editions, although some qualifiers were unable to compete due to health reasons.

I wish everyone all the best and the fans an unforgettable viewing experience.

Libor Varhaník
President of the Czech Athletic Federation
